

Macon Road Baptist Preschool (K3 and K4)

Our preschool program provides a warm, nurturing environment in a child-centered classroom. Teachers use age-appropriate learning materials and a variety of teaching strategies to help each child develop academically, socially, and spiritually. Our Christian-based curriculum provides for individual differences and opportunities for success in reading, writing, and math. The classroom curriculum is enhanced by enrichment classes in: art, music, Spanish, library, and physical education. We provide the building blocks needed for a great well-rounded educational experience in a fun and caring environment.

K3 classes include:

- Developing and refining motor skills
- Introduction of letters through crafts
- Introduction numbers

K4 classes include:

- Developing and refining motor skills
- Working with numbers – including adding and subtracting the 1's and 2's family
- Introduction to letters and sounds of letters, leading to reading whole words and short sentences.
- Using correct letter formation
